Anondita Medicare Achieves Major Global Regulatory Milestone with MDSAP Certification

Mumbai, January 12, 2026: Anondita Medicare Limited (NSE – SME: ANONDITA) has received the Medical Device Single Audit Program (MDSAP) Certification under ISO 13485:2016 from DQS Medizinprodukte GmbH, a globally recognised certification authority

The certification authorises the Company to sell, distribute, and market its products in five regulated international jurisdictions – Australia, Brazil, Canada, Japan, and the United States of America, providing a single, harmonised regulatory pathway into some of the world's most stringent medical device markets.

A Transformational Step in Global Expansion

The MDSAP certification marks a transformational leap in Anondita Medicare's global growth journey. By meeting the unified regulatory requirements of multiple global regulators, the Company has significantly enhanced its regulatory credibility, compliance strength, and international market readiness.

Anondita Medicare Limited, engaged in the manufacturing of male and female condoms, this approval substantially strengthens its ability to access regulated international markets, paving the way for:

- Expanded export opportunities
- Entry into premium and compliance-driven healthcare markets
- Improved acceptance by global distributors, institutions, and government procurement agencies

Management Commentary

Commenting on the development, Mr. Anupam Ghosh, Managing Director, Anondita Medicare Limited, said: "The MDSAP certification represents a critical step in strengthening our global regulatory foundation and manufacturing credibility. It enhances our visibility into long-term revenues from regulated international markets, simplifies multi-country regulatory requirements, and enables us to scale our export strategy more efficiently.

This milestone materially improves our competitive positioning against peers by aligning our operations with the highest international quality and compliance standards. We believe this certification will support strategically international growth and sustainable value creation for all stakeholders."
